PAYER'S REQUEST FOR TAXPAYER IDENTIFICATION NO.

PART I: Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN). Enter your TIN in the box below. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, refer to Part I of the W-9 Form, Specific Instructions. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN in the W-9 Form, Specific Instructions.

NOTE: If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on the W-9 Form, Specific Instructions.

NAME	Social Security No.

PART II: Certification. Under penalties of perjury, I certify that

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me) and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined in the W-9 Form, General Instructions) and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on the separate instruction sheet (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification Instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt contributions to an individual retirement arrangement, (IRA) and generally payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See Certification Instructions in the W-9 Form.

The Internal Revenue Service does not require your consent to any provision of this document other than the certifications required to avoid backup withholding. Your agreement to these provisions does not impact whether you are subject to backup withholding.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.
